TO OUR CUSTOMERS . . .

It is a pleasure to mail to you this descriptive price list. And we hope that it will serve to our mutual advantage. Our stock of Camellias is larger than ever. And you can be sure of receiving plants that will please you.

We try to advise our customers to the varieties of Camellias and Azaleas best suited for their particular locality.

We extend to you a cordial invitation to visit our nursery at any time. A visit during the Azalea or Camellia blooming season will be especially interesting to you. Camellias begin to bloom about November and Azaleas about February 15.

Sincerely,

ERNEST A. JUDICE,

Judice's Nursery

AN-FLO-LEE (New)

(Red semi-double)

Red semi-double, the red in this camellia is very dark and changeable according to wet climate condition, medium to slow grower. Price $10.00.

ADOLPHE AUDUSSON Var.

Picture the beauty of this one, it is one of the finest types of semi-double Camellias, varying from deep red to red and white variegated, with large flowers measuring from 5 to 6 inches. Blooms have prominent stamens irregularly arranged among the heavy textured broad petals, very deep green leaves; we consider this camellia one of the very best pure red or the variegated one. 1 year graft. Price $7.50 to $10.00.

ALBA PLENA

Too well known to need further description; needless to say, it is still rightfully considered one of the very finest Camellias ever grown in the South, perfectly formed and pure white. Blooming size. Price $2.00 to $20.00.

BETTY SHEFFIELD

White Variegated (Incomplete Double)

Bloom, a medium to large white with a few red and pink splotches and strips, incomplete double (anemone form) 4 to 4½ inches in diameter. The large petaloids are erect and are intermixed with stamens. Foliage, glossy rich green oval 4¼ by 2¾ inches. Leaf tip prominent and about 7/16 of an inch. Serrations shallow with black pointed tips. Trait rapid regular growth. 1 year graft. $10.00 to $15.00

BETTY THEISSEN (New)

Pink (Incomplete Double) Early

Bloom, a large light blush pink shading to deeping blush in the center, incomplete double (anemone form) loosely formed with numerous petals intermixed with yellow stamens. Foliage medium glossy green, rounded 4¼ by 2½ inches. Veins are lighter green and quite noticeable, serrations are prominent and saw tooth sharp. Traits, bushy symmetrical and rather slow, twigs heavy. 1 year graft. Price $15.00.

BUDDY (New)

(Semi-double)

This is a seedling, it is a very unusual camellia and different in construction than most camellias. The flower is not large, being 3 inches wide and 2 inches high, semi-double. The four inside petals come to a point at the tips forming a collar around the stamens, the other petals are round at the tips. The flower has three distinct rows of petals. 1 year graft. Price $10.00.

BETTY HOPFER (New)

Shaded pink to white, double, late bloomer. 1 year graft. Price $15.00.

BLACK DRAGON

A very dark red, almost black; this dark and very large irregular semi-double red is most exotic; blooms at mid-season. Price $10.00 to $15.00.

CHARLOTTE BRADFORD

This Camellia is the latest introduction of J. S. Bradford, of Ocean Springs. It is a variegated sport of Mrs. Baldwin Wood. It is an upright grower, very compact; dark green leaves, very shiney. The flower is large. 4 to 4¼ inches in dia. 3 to 3½ thru the axis. Truly a Gem of the Camellia World. Color Phlox pink and White. Price $7.50 to $15.00.

CHANDLERI ELEGANS Var.

All the nice things we have said about the solid color form goes for this one. Price $2.00 to $10.00.

CLOWER WHITE

A seedling resulting from a cross of Noblissima and Glorie De Nantes made by Mr. T. S. Clower of Gulfport, Miss. in 1938, this camellia is of rapid open upright growth. The pure white flowers are incomplete double with yellow anthered stamens among the petaloids. Mid-season bloomer, flowers are 5-5½" in diameter. 1 year graft. Price $10.00.

C. M. WILSON

A sport of Chandleri Elegans, a blush pink form of Elegans that is a match for High Hat; typical of Elegans in all other respects. Price $7.50 to $15.00.

CRUSADER

Grows on a very compact busy type plant. Its leaves are large; very dark green and looks as tho varnished. It is healthy, vigorous and a fine lawn specimen. The flower is very large — of great depth. The color is a very deep red. The base petals are large and evenly spaced around the flower. The center petals are large, some incurved and twisted and intermingled with gold colored stamens. Some flowers show no stamens. Price $7.50 to $10.00.

DUTCHESS OF COVINGTON (New)

(White Var. Incomplete Double) Mid-season

This sport of Dutchess of Southerland was originated and somewhat generally distributed by Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund J. Katz, Covington, La. The first graft from this sport was made in 1947 and it bloomed in 1949. Subsequently it was regrafted in 1949, 1950 and 1951. The flowers from these grafts have been true to the original sport and the variety is now set. This sport is identical to its parent in all characteristics except that of flower coloration. The flower of Dutchess of Covington has a white background, flecked and moired with pink. This color pattern is the reverse of that in Ruth Royer. 1 year graft. Price $15.00 to $25.00.

DAIKAGURA RED

A very lovely red sport of the var. Highly esteemed for earliness of bloom and its beautiful dark green and large foliage. This is one camellia that you can't go wrong with. Price $7.50 to $10.00

DEBUTANTE

One of the very best. A soft peony pink. Price $3.00 to $10.00.

GOVERNOR KENNON (New)

(Pure Pink, Semi-double, Mid-season)

(Quote from page 281 American Camellia Year Book 1951)

Number 33 is one of Mr. Turner's favorites, it is a large beautiful pure pink, resembling the Ernico Bettoni, in formation, and color. It blooms in early mid-season, over a long period of time and is a fast upright grower. Even before this camellia had been named it has become very popular. Numerous visitors to Mr. Turner's garden have expressed a desire to own one of these plants, so it must be good. 1 year graft. Price $20.00.

GOV. WILLIAM BRADFORD

The flower is very large and of great depth, the color is red and white var., the base petals are large and evenly spaced around the flowers, the center petals are large, some incurved and twisted and intermingled with gold stamens. 1 year graft. Price $10.00.
